No. 524:

GENERAL ORDER.

HORSE-GUARDS, 20th June, 1836.

LORD HILL finds it expedient to revise and extend the benefits of the Regulation under which the Soldier of good character is indulged with permission to purchase his Discharge upon the recommendation of his Commanding Officer:

His Lordship is convinced that the popularity of the Military Service generally, and the success of the Recruiting Service, cannot fail to be greatly increased by granting that indulgence to as liberal an extent as may be consistent with the due maintenance of the efficiency of the Army.

With that conviction upon his mind, Lord Hill earnestly recommends to Commanding Officers of Regiments and Depôts not to refuse their support to any case of application for Discharge for the Regulated Compensation, in which the Applicant's conduct shall be unexceptionable.

The want of a moderate number of Men to complete the Rank and File of a Regiment ought not, of itself, to be the means of disappointing a deserving Soldier of his Discharge, there being no difficulty in obtaining Recruits even at the present low rate of bounty.

Lord Hill will accordingly watch the future operation of the admirable system of Discharge for Compensation, and give his decision in favour of every case in which the Commanding Officer shall not submit circumstantial proof of the unworthiness of the Applicant, it being always understood that exigencies may arise to render the total suspension of the grant of Discharges absolutely necessary, such as the embarkation of a Regiment for active service.

His Lordship will, on these occasions, ascertain the number of Men wanting to complete by reference to the last Returns of the Regiment to which the Applicant belongs.

Although the Regulation in question was framed to reward the good and efficient Soldier only, yet experience has proved that the Army derives great advantage from the occasional Discharge for the Regulated Compensation, of Men of indifferent character, and whose habits may have rendered them permanently inefficient, as well as Men who have been too long in a state of desertion to be again fit for the Ranks.

All Cases of the above nature are to be specially submitted by Commanding Officers for Lord Hill's decision; and his Lordship expects that he shall frequently have it in his power to disencumber Regiments of Men of this description without prejudice to the discipline of the Service.

By Command of the Right Honourable

GENERAL LORD HILL,

Commanding in Chief;

JOHN MACDONALD,

Adjutant General.

No. 524:

GENERAL ORDER.

LORD HILL finds it expedient to revise and extend the benefits of the Regulation under which the Soldier of good character is indulged with permission to purchase his Discharge upon the recommendation of his Commanding Officer.

His Lordship is convinced that the popularity of the Military Service generally, and the success of the Recruiting Service, cannot fail to be greatly increased by granting that indulgence to as liberal an extent as may be consistent with the due maintenance of the efficiency of the Army.

With that conviction upon his mind, Lord Hill earnestly recommends to Commanding Officers of Regiments and Depôts not to refuse their support to any case of application for Discharge for the Regulated Compensation, in which the Applicant's conduct shall be unexceptionable.

The want of a moderate number of Men to complete the Rank and File of a Regiment ought not, of itself, to be the means of disappointing a deserving Soldier of his Discharge, there being no difficulty in obtaining Recruits even at the present low rate of bounty.

Lord Hill will accordingly watch the future operation of the admirable system of Discharge for Compensation, and give his decision in favour of every case in which the Commanding Officer shall not submit circumstantial proof of the unworthiness of the Applicant, it being always understood that exigencies may arise to render the total suspension of the grant of Discharges absolutely necessary, such as the embarkation of a Regiment for active service.

His Lordship will, on these occasions, ascertain the number of Men wanting to complete by reference to the last Returns of the Regiment to which the Applicant belongs.

Although the Regulation in question was framed to reward the good and efficient Soldier only, yet experience has proved that the Army derives great advantage from the occasional Discharge for the Regulated Compensation, of Men of indifferent character, and whose habits may have rendered them permanently inefficient, as well as Men who have been too long in a state of desertion to be again fit for the Ranks.

All Cases of the above nature are to be specially submitted by Commanding Officers for Lord Hill's decision; and his Lordship expects that he shall frequently have it in his power to disencumber Regiments of Men of this description without prejudice to the discipline of the Service.

By Command of the Right Honourable

GENERAL LORD HILL,

Commanding in Chief;

JOHN MACDONALD,

Adjutant General.

CIRCULAR, No. 891.

SIR,

War-Office, 19th Aug. 1836.

I HAVE the honour to enclose a Copy of His Majesty's Warrant regulating a system of Rewards by a distinctive mark of Merit, and by Additions to the Rates of Pay and of Pensions on Discharge, to be obtained by the well-conducted soldier.

I have great pleasure in communicating this instance of His Majesty's gracious consideration for the welfare and advantage of the Army.

I have, &amp;c.

HOWICK.

Officer Commanding
Regiment of

WILLIAM R.

WHEREAS it has been represented to Us that it would materially tend to the encouragement of good conduct in the Army, if a Reward, to be attained only by the well-conducted Soldier, were substituted for the additional Pay now granted to soldiers who have completed certain periods of service: Our Will and Pleasure is, that all soldiers, who shall enlist into Our Service on or after the 1st day of September, 1836, shall have no claim to Additional Pay after any period of service, but that a Reward of additional pay for good conduct shall be granted to such soldiers under the following rules:—

1. Soldiers, who shall have completed seven years' service, shall be entitled to claim 1d. a day, and to wear a ring of lace round the right arm, provided their names shall not have been entered in the Regimental Defaulters' Book for at least two years immediately preceding such claim.

2. Soldiers, who shall have completed fourteen years' service, shall be entitled to claim a further reward of 1d. a day, and to wear two rings of lace round the right arm, provided they shall have been uninterruptedly in the enjoyment of the 1d. a day for at least two years immediately preceding such further claim.

3. Soldiers, who shall have completed twenty-one years' service, shall be entitled to claim a further reward of 1d. a day, and to wear three rings of lace round the right arm, provided they shall have been uninterruptedly in the enjoyment of the 2d. a day for two years immediately preceding their claim to the third penny.

4. Soldiers, who by their good conduct shall have obtained the distinction of one or more rings, shall be entitled to have the full rate of that good conduct pay, of which they shall have been in uninterrupted possession for five years immediately preceding their discharge, added to the rate of pension, whether temporary or permanent, to which they may have a right under the provisions of Our Warrant of the 7th February, 1833.

5. Soldiers, who have been in the possession of some one or other of the rates of good conduct pay for five years uninterruptedly, but who have only been in possession of either of the higher rates for some period not less than two years immediately preceding their discharge, shall be entitled, if discharged with two rings, to an addition of  $1\frac{1}{2}d.$ , and if discharged with three rings, to an addition of  $2\frac{1}{2}d.$ , as an augmentation of the pension to which their services will entitle them.

6. Soldiers, who shall have been in the uninterrupted possession of good conduct pay for at least three years immediately preceding their discharge for disability, or by reduction, and who shall not have acquired claims to pension, or who shall be entitled only to temporary or conditional pensions, shall have their names registered at Chelsea Hospital; and upon their attaining sixty years of age, shall receive, as a reward for their former good conduct, a pension of  $4d.$  a day if discharged with one ring, and of  $6d.$  a day if discharged after having been twelve months in possession of two rings; and this reward for former good conduct shall also be extended to soldiers who may be permitted to obtain free discharge at their own request, as an indulgence, after certain periods of service, as described in the 10th Article of this Warrant.

7. All soldiers now in our service, who enlisted since the 1st March, 1833, shall have the option of relinquishing all right to the additional pay of  $2d.$  a day to which they are entitled after the completion of fourteen years' infantry, or of seventeen years' cavalry service, and shall then be entitled, by their good conduct, to claim the  $1d.$  a day after seven years' service, and shall be in all respects entitled to all the advantages both of good conduct pay while serving, of pension on discharge, and of deferred pension, which are hereby granted to soldiers henceforward enlisting.

8. All soldiers now serving, who enlisted on or before the 1st March, 1833, shall, by relinquishing their right to additional pay for length of service, be entitled to claim all the advantages of good conduct pay while serving, which are hereby granted; but as the Warrants which were in force at the time of their original enlistment give them a right to higher rates of pension on discharge than those which are to be granted to men enlisted after the 1st March, 1833, they will not be entitled to have their good conduct pay added to their pensions on discharge.

9. In special cases, however, of men enlisted on or before the 1st March, 1833, who, by their good conduct, have obtained the distinction of one or more rings, and who, after short service, may be discharged for disabilities, or by reduction either without pension, or with temporary, or conditional, or permanent pensions, (not exceeding those granted for similar disabilities and services under Our Warrant of the 7th February, 1833,) the good conduct pay may, by the consent of Our Secretary at War, be added to their pensions; and such men, if not placed upon permanent pensions, may be registered at Chelsea for the deferred pension under the same rules as the men enlisted after the 1st March, 1833.

10. Soldiers who shall have obtained the distinction of one or more rings, and who may be permitted to purchase or to obtain free discharges at their own request, shall be allowed free discharges upon the following terms, instead of those prescribed by the Warrant of Our late Royal Brother of the 14th November, 1829, and by Our Warrant of the 7th February, 1833; but the conditions, limitations and regulations for granting discharges by indulgence, laid down in the said Warrants, shall, in the cases of all other soldiers, remain in full force:

	Cavalry.	Infantry.
Under 5 years' service.....	£30	£20
After 5 years' service, and with 2 years' absence from the Defaulters' Book .....	25	18
After 7 years, with one ring .....	20	15
After 10 do. ....	15	10
After 12 do. ....	10	5
After 14 do. ....	5	Free.
After 16 do. ....	{ Free, with the right of registry for de- ferred pension of 4d. a day.
After 16 years, with two rings, having possessed the second at least 12 months .....	{ Free, with the right of registry for de- ferred pension of 6d. a day.

11. Soldiers enlisted since the 1st March, 1833, who are in the enjoyment of two or three rings, and of the good conduct pay, may obtain permanent pension, as an indulgence, at the rate fixed in the Warrant of 7th February, 1833, two years earlier than other men who have not earned this distinction, and may further receive the same amount of good conduct pay which would have been added to their ordinary pension under the rules laid down in this Warrant, if they had been discharged as unfit for further service or by reduction.

12. As it is Our Will and Pleasure that this Reward shall be strictly an honourable distinction, to be conferred only upon the well-conducted soldier, the Commanding Officers of Regiments are strictly enjoined to enter in the Regimental Defaulters' Book the name of every soldier who, in consequence of any misconduct whatever, shall have been confined in the guard-house, or subjected to any punishment; and the commission of every offence, which shall impose upon the Commanding Officer the necessity of recording the soldier's name in the Regimental Defaulters' Book, shall render the man ineligible for this Reward for two years from that date, and if he be already in possession of this distinction, shall deprive him of his ring and good conduct pay for one year; and a second recorded offence within twelve months shall render two years of uninterrupted good conduct necessary to obtain a restoration of such reward.

13. The soldier having two or three rings shall in like manner, for the first and second recorded offences, forfeit one ring, and the good conduct pay allowed with it for one year, for each offence; and if a third offence be recorded against him in the Regimental Defaulters' Book within twelve months, he shall forfeit all claim in consequence of his previous good conduct, and shall only be entitled to obtain a restoration of his honourable distinctions by subsequently serving with uninterrupted good conduct for two years to obtain one ring, for four years to obtain two rings, and for six years to obtain three rings.

14. Any soldier, who, by having been recorded in the Regimental Defaulters' Book, shall have been adjudged to have been guilty of an offence by which he is to forfeit the whole or a part of his reward for previous good conduct, shall, if he denies the commission of such offence, have the right of appeal to a court-martial.

15. A soldier may, for a first offence of a serious nature, be adjudged, by the sentence of a court-martial, to forfeit all or any part of the advantages he had derived from his previous good conduct, either absolutely, or for a longer or shorter period, according to the circumstances which shall have appeared in evidence.

16. The distinction and the rewards granted by this Warrant will be extended to corporals and drummers both as regards pay and pension, but serjeants and other non-commissioned officers will not be allowed, while serving, any addition to their established pay, but on their discharge they may, for peculiarly good conduct, on the special recommendation of Our General Commanding-in-Chief, and by the consent of Our Secretary at War, communicated to the Commissioners of Chelsea Hospital, be allowed additions of 1d., 2d., or 3d. a day to their pensions; provided that the aggregate pension shall in no case exceed for a serjeant 1s. 10d., for a quarter-master serjeant 2s. 1d., and for a serjeant-major 2s. 4d. a day.

Given at Our Court at Windsor; this 18th day of August, 1836, in the Seventh Year of Our Reign.

By His Majesty's Command.

WILLIAM R.

WHEREAS it has been represented to Us that it would materially tend to the encouragement of good conduct in the Army, if a Reward, to be attained only by the well-conducted Soldier, were substituted for the additional Pay now granted to soldiers who have completed certain periods of service: Our Will and Pleasure is, that all soldiers, who shall enlist into Our Service on or after the 1st day of September, 1836, shall have no claim to Additional Pay after any period of service, but that a Reward of additional pay for good conduct shall be granted to such soldiers under the following rules:—

1. Soldiers, who shall have completed seven years' service, shall be entitled to claim 1d. a day, and to wear a ring of lace round the right arm, provided their names shall not have been entered in the Regimental Defaulters' Book for at least two years immediately preceding such claim.

2. Soldiers, who shall have completed fourteen years' service, shall be entitled to claim a further reward of 1d. a day, and to wear two rings of lace round the right arm, provided they shall have been uninterruptedly in the enjoyment of the 1d. a day for at least two years immediately preceding such further claim.

3. Soldiers, who shall have completed twenty-one years' service, shall be entitled to claim a further reward of 1d. a day, and to wear three rings of lace round the right arm, provided they shall have been uninterruptedly in the enjoyment of the 2d. a day for two years immediately preceding their claim to the third penny.

4. Soldiers, who by their good conduct shall have obtained the distinction of one or more rings, shall be entitled to have the full rate of that good conduct pay, of which they shall have been in uninterrupted possession for five years immediately preceding their discharge, added to the rate of pension, whether temporary or permanent, to which they may have a right under the provisions of Our Warrant of the 7th February, 1833.

5. Soldiers, who have been in the possession of some one or other of the rates of good conduct pay for five years uninterruptedly, but who have only been in possession of either of the higher rates for some period not less than two years immediately preceding their discharge, shall be entitled, if discharged with two rings, to an addition of 1½d., and if discharged with three rings, to an addition of 2½d., as an augmentation of the pension to which their services will entitle them.

6. Soldiers, who shall have been in the uninterrupted possession of good conduct pay for at least three years immediately preceding their discharge for disability, or by reduction, and who shall not have acquired claims to pension, or who shall be entitled only to temporary or conditional pensions, shall have their names registered at Chelsea Hospital; and upon their attaining sixty years of age, shall receive, as a reward for their former good conduct, a pension of 4d. a day if discharged with one ring, and of 6d. a day if discharged after having been twelve months in possession of two rings; and this reward for former good conduct shall also be extended to soldiers who may be permitted to obtain free discharge at their own request, as an indulgence, after certain periods of service, as described in the 10th Article of this Warrant.

7. All soldiers now in our service, who enlisted since the 1st March, 1833, shall have the option of relinquishing all right to the additional pay of 2d. a day to which they are entitled after the completion of fourteen years' infantry, or of seventeen years' cavalry service, and shall then be entitled, by their good conduct, to claim the 1d. a day after seven years' service, and shall be in all respects entitled to all the advantages both of good conduct pay while serving, of pension on discharge, and of deferred pension, which are hereby granted to soldiers henceforward enlisting.

8. All soldiers now serving, who enlisted on or before the 1st March, 1833, shall, by relinquishing their right to additional pay for length of service, be entitled to claim all the advantages of good conduct pay while serving, which are hereby granted; but as the Warrants which were in force at the time of their original enlistment give them a right to higher rates of pension on discharge than those which are to be granted to men enlisted after the 1st March, 1833, they will not be entitled to have their good conduct pay added to their pensions on discharge.

9. In special cases, however, of men enlisted on or before the 1st March, 1833, who, by their good conduct, have obtained the distinction of one or more rings, and who, after short service, may be discharged for disabilities, or by reduction either without pension, or with temporary, or conditional, or permanent pensions, (not exceeding those granted for similar disabilities and services under Our Warrant of the 7th February, 1833,) the good conduct pay may, by the consent of Our Secretary at War, be added to their pensions; and such men, if not placed upon permanent pensions, may be registered at Chelsea for the deferred pension under the same rules as the men enlisted after the 1st March, 1833.

10. Soldiers who shall have obtained the distinction of one or more rings, and who may be permitted to purchase or to obtain free discharges at their own request, shall be allowed free discharges upon the following terms, instead of those prescribed by the Warrant of Our late Royal Brother of the 14th November, 1829, and by Our Warrant of the 7th February, 1833; but the conditions, limitations and regulations for granting discharges by indulgence, laid down in the said Warrants, shall, in the cases of all other soldiers, remain in full force:

	Cavalry.	Infantry.
Under 5 years' service.....	£30	£20
After 5 years' service, and with 2 years' absence from the Defaulters' Book .....	25	18
After 7 years, with one ring .....	20	15
After 10 do. ....	15	10
After 12 do. ....	10	5
After 14 do. ....	5	Free.
After 16 do. ....	{ Free, with the right of registry for de- ferred pension of 1d. a day.
After 16 years, with two rings, having possessed the second at least 12 months .....

11. Soldiers enlisted since the 1st March, 1833, who are in the enjoyment of two or three rings, and of the good conduct pay, may obtain permanent pensions, as an indulgence, at the rate fixed in the Warrant of 7th February, 1833, two years earlier than other men who have not earned this distinction, and may further receive the same amount of good conduct pay which would have been added to their ordinary pension under the rules laid down in this Warrant, if they had been discharged as unfit for further service or by reduction.

12. As it is Our Will and Pleasure that this Reward shall be strictly an honourable distinction, to be conferred only upon the well-conducted soldier, the Commanding Officers of Regiments are strictly enjoined to enter in the Regimental Defaulters' Book the name of every soldier who, in consequence of any misconduct whatever, shall have been confined in the guard-house, or subjected to any punishment; and the commission of every offence, which shall impose upon the Commanding Officer the necessity of recording the soldier's name in the Regimental Defaulters' Book, shall render the man ineligible for this Reward for two years from that date, and if he be already in possession of this distinction, shall deprive him of his ring and good conduct pay for one year; and a second recorded offence within twelve months shall render two years of uninterrupted good conduct necessary to obtain a restoration of such reward.

13. The soldier having two or three rings shall in like manner, for the first and second recorded offences, forfeit one ring, and the good conduct pay allowed with it for one year, for each offence; and if a third offence be recorded against him in the Regimental Defaulters' Book within twelve months, he shall forfeit all claim in consequence of his previous good conduct, and shall only be entitled to obtain a restoration of his honourable distinctions by subsequently serving with uninterrupted good conduct for two years to obtain one ring, for four years to obtain two rings, and for six years to obtain three rings.

14. Any soldier, who, by having been recorded in the Regimental Defaulters' Book, shall have been adjudged to have been guilty of an offence by which he is to forfeit the whole or a part of his reward for previous good conduct, shall, if he denies the commission of such offence, have the right of appeal to a court-martial.

15. A soldier may, for a first offence of a serious nature, be adjudged, by the sentence of a court-martial, to forfeit all or any part of the advantages he had derived from his previous good conduct, either absolutely, or for a longer or shorter period, according to the circumstances which shall have appeared in evidence.

16. The distinction and the rewards granted by this Warrant will be extended to corporals and drummers both as regards pay and pension, but serjeants and other non-commissioned officers will not be allowed, while serving, any addition to their established pay, but on their discharge they may, for peculiarly good conduct, on the special recommendation of Our General Commanding-in-Chief, and by the consent of Our Secretary at War, communicated to the Commissioners of Chelsea Hospital, be allowed additions of 1d., 2d., or 3d. a day to their pensions; provided that the aggregate pension shall in no case exceed for a serjeant 1s. 10d., for a quarter-master serjeant 2s. 1d., and for a serjeant-major 2s. 4d. a day.

Given at Our Court at Windsor, this 18th day of August, 1836, in the Seventh Year of Our Reign.

By His Majesty's Command.

INSTRUCTIONS

Consequent upon his Majesty's Warrant of the 18th August, 1836.

1. THE rules established by the Warrant in regard to Soldiers who shall enlist on or after the 1st September, 1836, will apply to Men who shall re-enlist after that date.
2. The service requisite to entitle Corporals, Drummers, Trumpeters, Fifers, Buglers and Private Men to the distinction and rewards granted by this Warrant may include former service in all ranks after the age of eighteen.
3. Men discharged on reduction, or for disability, and re-enlisting within three years after the date of their discharge, may reckon their former service, provided they shall declare such former service at the time of re-enlistment; but Men purchasing their discharges, or receiving free discharges, shall not reckon former service.
4. The forfeiture of service now attaching to individuals in respect of additional pay, in consequence of the sentence of a Court Martial, or of conviction for desertion, will equally attach to them in respect of good conduct pay.
5. All soldiers now serving who enlisted on or before the 1st March, 1833, and who have completed twenty-one years' service, may, on relinquishing their right to additional pay, receive 3d. per diem good conduct pay, provided their names shall not have been entered in the Regimental Defaulters' Book for at least six years immediately preceding the exchange.
6. Soldiers of less than twenty-one years' service, already in the receipt of additional pay at 2d. a-day for length of service, may, on relinquishing their right to additional pay, continue to receive the same amount as good conduct pay, provided their names shall not have been entered in the Regimental Defaulters' Book for at least four years immediately preceding the exchange.
7. Soldiers who are already in the receipt of additional pay of 1d. a day for length of service may, on relinquishing their right to additional pay, continue to receive the same amount, as good conduct pay, provided their names shall not have been entered in the Regimental Defaulters' Book for at least two years immediately preceding the exchange.
8. Soldiers not yet in the receipt of additional pay for length of service may, by relinquishing their right to the same, receive good conduct pay, on completing the respective periods of seven, fourteen and twenty-one years, provided their names shall not have been entered in the Regimental Defaulters' Book—in the first case, for at least two years ; in the second case, for at least four years ; and in the third case, for at least six years immediately preceding.

9. Soldiers who were present at the Battle of Waterloo shall be allowed to reckon two years in addition to their actual service, and those who were enlisted before the 1st December, 1829, shall be allowed to reckon three years for two of actual service after the age of eighteen, in the East and West Indies (in other than West-India Regiments).

10. Soldiers enlisted before the 1st of September, 1836, shall be entitled to the distinction of rings under the provisions of the Warrant, whether they accept or not the option of relinquishing additional pay for good conduct pay ; and they shall be entitled to the same addition to their pensions for the number of rings they may severally possess at the period of their discharge, as is allowed, under the provisions of the Warrant, to Men in receipt of good conduct pay.

CIRCULAR.

SIR,

Horse-Guards, 1st Sept. 1836.

I HAVE it in command to direct your special attention to His Majesty's Warrant, dated the 18th ultimo, which has been transmitted to you by the Secretary at War, and to express Lord Hill's desire, that you cause the Provisions of that Document to be fully explained to the Non-commissioned Officers and Soldiers composing the Regiment under your Command, impressing upon them, by every means in your power, a due sense of the important advantages thus held out to them, as the Reward of perseverance in obedience to their Military Superiors, and in general good Conduct.

The principal object of this Letter is to enjoin Commanding Officers to take care that, so far as depends upon them, none of the benefits conferred by the Warrant in question shall be enjoyed by any but the well-conducted Soldier ;—that nothing amounting to misconduct in the ordinary acceptation and meaning of that word, shall, on any account, be overlooked ;—and that every instance of Misconduct shall be distinctly registered against the Individual, in the Regimental Records, so as to preclude the possibility of his coming into possession of either additional Pay or Pension, to which his behaviour as a Soldier, and as a Member of Society, shall not have established his Claim, under the provisions of the Warrant.

The General Commanding in Chief is too well acquainted with the high principle of the Officers of the Army, and has too confident a reliance upon their love of Order, Discipline and Subordination, to suffer himself to entertain the remotest suspicion, that any of them will ever lend their instrumentality towards obtaining for the unworthy any of these Rewards which their King and Country have provided exclusively for the meritorious Soldier.

I have, &c.

JOHN MACDONALD,
Adjutant-General.

Officer Commanding
Regiment.

WAR-OFFICE, 8th September, 1836.

SIR,

I AM directed by the Secretary at War to annex, for your information and guidance, a Statement of the Daily Rates of Allowances to General and other Staff Officers, and to Field and Staff Officers of Infantry Regiments, in lieu of Forage for the Horses required to be kept by them for the Public Service, for the Half-year from the 1st April, 1836, to the 30th September, 1836, agreeably to which the Charges for Forage will be allowed.

I am directed to add, that if a Charge at a different Rate has been already made in your Accounts, the same should be corrected according to the said Statement.

I am, &amp;c.
